

New Zip Code

Radney Foster

A new zip code is what I need
Any place where your heartache can't finds me
Ain't a bar in this town where I can lose your memory
So I'm kissing this dirt goodbye
I'm probably never gonna outrun this hurt
But I'm damn sure gonna try

I'm packin' my life up an' movin' it down the road
I don't really care which way my heart goes
Well, the address doesn't matter
Must be a million of em
Scattered around the globe
I just gotta pick one to be my new zip code

Opened up that Rand MacNally put my finger down
Maybe a south side valley or a West Texas border town
Don't waste your postage on a come home letter
Cause it's gonna come back to you
When you see that baby marked
Return To Sender
It'll hit you that we're through
Yeah, I'm gonna find someone new

Yeah, I'm packing my life up
And moving it down the road
I don't really care which way my heart goes
Well, the address doesn't matter
Must be a million of em
Scattered around the globe
I just gotta pick one to be my new zip code

Because I'm packin' my life up
And moving it down the road
I'm gonna find me a new zip code
Yeah, a new zip code
I'm gonna find me a new zip code, yeah, yeah
