

You know

Radůza

You know I am not looking for easy ways that's why I am saying it's over although I could lie till the end of my days pushing myself lower and lower

You know I am not looking for easy paths I feel love from messages you are sending but there is no future for our past and your plain is landing

To overlive the death of all my love I've lost as well as the hope as the power and now we have to pay the highest cost I can't call you any more, my lover

You know I am not looking for easy ways
I feel love from messages you are sending
but I don't want to lie till the end of my days
and your plain is landing
