

Through Ages

Rage

So you think this was all for you
Disconnected you feel lonely and blue
You try to find the pieces of your heart
Turn around and look twice, my friend
Something's trying to find a hold again
It seems that it was lost so long ago

It travels in your mind
Through ages you'll find
Your dark past is alive
Through ages you'll find your love

You have it in your memories and it's all within your mind
Through ages you'll find your love
