

Tomorrow Never Comes

Rage

No doubt in mind, I'm running wild
I see the angels fly

All ups and downs, let's drink out every cup
Swallow it all, I hate the consequences
And I never want to see

Believe it, tomorrow never comes
It's easy when tomorrow never comes
It's only an illusion but it seems to be ok
The hardest part is waking up one day

All drowns in pain, everything hurts
I've seen my anger die

What used to be is just a memory
Reality has brought me to my knees
And now decay is here to stay

Believe it, tomorrow never comes
It's easy when tomorrow never comes
It's only an illusion but it seems to be ok
The hardest part is waking up one day
