

Guess Who Loves You More

Raheem DeVaughn

Word on the streets is you gave me this walking papers
And well I wanna be the man my daddy raised me
To be my momma taught me to be see baby

(2x)

Guess who loves you more
Oh love guess who loves you more than he did girl,
Guess who treats you better than he did,
Me girl me that that's right me
When you goin' see wake up and see

Lady, lady, lady my darling darling baby I wanna restore your hope
Forget about the past this things gon last
Oh (for the tears you used to shed)
I wanna dry them (when you tossed and turned in bed)
I wanna rock you to sleep the right way, what I'm tryna say is
My love for you can never be measured (ain't no doubt about it)

Girl I treasure (girl don't you ever doubt it)
And each day my love multiplies for you girl
As long as far as time is on my side I'm gon be by your side
Baby your perfect in my eyes your my joy and pride

(it's me that loves you baby)
Honest to god I do girl
I promise you that I'll cherish you
I'll love you protect you,
Grind for you yes I will honest to god I do
Said I'll grind for you I love you baby I cherish you
You'll be my lady nothing will break our bond
Honest to god I do have faith in me
I'll have faith in you keep and swear that's how much care
Oh baby I wanna love you I care for you,
You never never never never never never never Never never never never never never never,
Never got to worry no,
In fact I'm on my way right now to you
