

Shine

Rain

You are the reason
My heartbeat races up at nightfall
Tell me the meaning
All I've got inside to fight for

Don't you be afraid
Of the morning after
The night is darker than the dawn

And all of your days
Have been getting harder
To make you brighter than before

Shine
Shine
Shine into the black
Through the sky, oh go now
Shine
Shine
Shine
Shine into the black
Through the sky, oh go now
Shine

You are a wonder
Of what goes inside a perfect face
So speak up now
Life can go so many different ways

You know what they say
Once you let it go
The world crawls back to your fingertips

Something's gonna change
Once you say hello
There's always one more goodbye kiss

Shine
Shine
Shine into the black
Through the sky, oh go now
Shine

Shine, shine, shine
Shine into the black
Shine, shine bright
So we can make it back

Shine, shine, shine
Shine into the black
Shine, shine, shine
So we can make it back

Shine
Shine
Shine into the black

Shine
