

Wait

Rains

Act as if no one sees your deception.
You know it will ruin you.
Turn a blind eye they're all misconceptions.
You take everyone for fools.
Try so hard but your fear of rejection means you're gonna be the one to lose.
If you convince yourself, just convince yourself.

[Chorus]

To wait for just a minute longer.
Hold off it will only make you stronger.
Wait for just a moment longer
We hold on walking towards the fire.

Act as if no one sees your true colors.
You think we're all under you.
Like a slap in the face
Your dishonesty gathers around us in full.
You try so hard but your fear of rejection
Means you're gonna be the one to lose.
If you convince yourself, just convince yourself.

[Chorus]

To wait for just a minute longer.
Hold off it will only make you stronger.
Wait for just a moment longer
We hold on walking towards the fire.

Wait for just a minute longer.
Hold off it will only make you stronger.
And wait for just a moment longer
We hold on walking towards the fire.

Wait for just a minute longer.
Hold off it will only make you stronger.
And wait for just a moment longer
We hold on walking towards the fire.
