

When we wake up and we open our eyes, always surprised.
These powerful men they want to colonize.
It started disguised as an exercise.
This is not a sensation, turning into a full scale invasion.
People engaged in gunfights to achieve fundamental rights.

Aiming to destabilize, immoralize, nationalize.

It's just a masquerade. Soldiers in shades, invade countries without understanding that they are a part of the latest crusade.
Orchestrated by a lie, in order to petrify countries nearby.
The new world designer wants to recreate the empire.

Go.
