Danger Heartbreak Dead Ahead

Bonnie Raitt

When you give more than you get You're in danger You may find that you're in love With a stranger

But who knows what evil Lurks within the hearts of men? It's vanity, insanity You play what you can't win

If you find that you're losing Girl, it's time to get on moving 'Cause there's danger Heartbreak dead ahead

Well, it only takes one second, girl, to learn That playing with fire will get you burned So girl, don't you be foolish

They say that love is blind
But it's clear as the highway sign
That reads 'Danger, heartbreak dead ahead'
Heartbreak dead ahead

Better mind, girl, read the sign, girl Yeah, danger and heartbreak dead ahead

I want somebody's boy (Heartbreak dead ahead) Start packing up your heart Now listen to me, girl

There's nothing to be gained So don't keep going on in vain There's danger and heartbreak dead ahead Yeah, I said, "There's danger and heartbreak dead ahead"

Danger, I said, "There's danger"
(Heartbreak dead ahead)
I said, "There's danger and heartbreak dead ahead"
Baby, yeah, I said, "There's danger"
(Heartbreak dead ahead)
