

I Gave My Love a Candle

Bonnie Raitt

I gave my love a candle
A promise at life
And I told æ...½m when my number comes up
Winds would fill the sky
Me IæŠ| fixin□to die
Moving down that same lonesome road
No I donæŠ° know why
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
You didnæŠ° have to fool me
You didnæŠ° have to lie
My love comes æ†found like a thief in the night
But only love can make you cry
And we have walked side by side
Moving down that same lonesome road
No I donæŠ° know why
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Your love was like a diamond ride a wave on a sea that calms my mind
Moving onward to a distant shore
Where the boats sail in a line
We have danced to a fateful rhyme
Moving down the same lonesome road
No I donæŠ° know why
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
You didnæŠ° have to fool me, no
You didnæŠ° have to lie
If it all came out so ugly
ItæŠ- only my love that could make you cry
And we have walked side by side
Moving down that same lonesome road
And I still donæŠ° know why
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Ooh ooh ooh
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
