Talk to Me

Bonnie Raitt

The time has come Before our yesterday is here I said, the time has come now baby For you and me to get a few things clear

I might be right or I might be wrong What does it matter if I'm weak or strong I might be rich I might be poor Please don't ya ever close that door

Come home and talk to me Tell me what is on your mind You better tell me baby Tell me while there's still enough time

Well I gave you everything that I had Now you're sayin' you're a little bit mad at me I taught ya everything I knew There ain't too much more I can do for you You feel there's somethin' wrong? Then you'll have to tell me it's wrong

You know it too There's somethin' wrong with you Don't hold it in Come on baby, I'm still your friend

Why don't you talk to me Tell me what is on your mind Now ya better tell me baby Tell me while there's still enough time

I might be right or I might be wrong What does it matter if I'm weak or strong I might be rich I might be poor Please don't ya ever close that door

Come home and talk to me Tell me what is on your mind You better tell me baby Tell me while there's still enough time