Ram Jam

Looking in the spot, I know she's coming on to me
I can see she's staring and I [?]
Gonna lose my self-control and on the floor we'll roll
Hugging and a kissing, dance until my lovin' is gone
Please, please, please, please me
Please, please, please, please me
Please, please, please, please me

Please, please, please, please me

Lately I've been guessing that no-one turned you on like me
I've been loving honey I'm sure that I can believe
Never felt like this before, yet she's yelling yet for more
Never been so crazy, love and I [?] that's true

Please, please, please, please me
