

Sea Of Skulls

RAM

Controlled by fear, locked up in their sphere,
blindfolded army, deceived.
Conception, protection, suspicion, repulsion,
aggressive defenders of lies.
They walk alone, they're so far from home, lost victims
of illusion.
Submission, suppression, addiction, destruction, ruling
the world through a dream.

Here where truth is lies, here where spirits die, let
the fallen stand and the standing fall.

My life is a crime, I'm here doing time, awake in the world of the sleeping, frustration, obstruction, confusion, expulsion, at war with the deaf and the blind.
I don't walk alone, we head for the throne, in our wake
the fires are burning.
Perception, devotion, restriction, construction, the stricken will rise with new eyes.

Here where truth is lies, here where spirits die, let
the fallen stand and the standing fall.

Hear it now as I speak what's forbidden, you're just
another head in the sea of skulls.
Feel it now it's your second deliverance, rise from the
dead in the sea of skulls.

Here where truth is lies, here where spirits die, let
the fallen stand and the standing fall.

Hear it now as I speak what's forbidden, you're just
another head in the sea of skulls.
Feel it now it's your second deliverance, rise from the
dead in the sea of skulls.
