

Strength To Endure

Ramones

Walking through across the heart
Feeling heavy and hopeless
Wonderin' how I ever will
See through this darkness
Every drop of blood can be so beautiful
And I sure was bleedin' the drops by the bucketful

I have the strength to endure and all the love so pure
I have the strength to endure because, because

I'm not afraid to tell her
Just how things work
Ride a hurricane through the fast lane
Always looking over my shoulder
She said there's something about you
And neon lights always glow hot
Baby we can see this through
Just give me all the strength you've got

I have the... (2x)

I'm not afraid...

I have the... (2x)
