

East Bay Night

Rancid

Another East Bay Night
(East Bay Night (3x))

When the sun goes down and the night come around and the fog come a rolling in,
When you cast a line
to go dance one time and an old friend invites you in,
hear a punk rock song and we sing along Everything gonna be alright

Another East Bay Night
(East Bay Night (3x))

Well gramma stands on the very same land on the old house
up on the hill,
you can see the San Francisco bay Alcatraz albany landfill, and reminisce on the front porch
under a yellow light

Another East Bay Night
(East Bay Night (3x))

Earthquakes shake and fires take from this view I've seen it all,
I've tasted smoke
as the hills burned I heard the freeway fall, when there's nothing to say just look into the bay
you know some things they just feel right
