Hero

Random Eyes

Here we go
Fighting against the flesh
Evil is whispering in my head
For loathesome things to do

I don`t know these people here
I`m alone in my world
I`m missing home to my dears
Who can take away my fears?

You, you are the hero in my eyes
My child I love you
I help you through this darkness
I live in your heart
You are the hero in my eyes
I'll protect you
Don't be afraid I guide you
I lead you through the night

Is that okay when you see a poor child is suffering in the pain Is it right when a man meets death with poison in his veins

Help yourself now while you can Time is fading away Turn around, can you see this Man He has another plan for you
