

New Creation Girl

Random Eyes

She danced with the lies too many times love was fake, just an empty phrase
She doesn't know why, she's gone insane

For so long
She was waiting
Trusting in promises
That she can never be seen

She start to cry
She said it's hard to play like this anymore

You're new creation girl
Don't hide your face so take your place
What's keeping you from joining your dreams
Time and time again

Draw back in silence
There's no starlight guiding your way...
You need something to break your chains

With a shake in her voice
she called me tonight
"I can't live this way"
She doesn't know why

She want to believe
She want to be loved
Why let life get you confused?
