

Tears

Random Eyes

Maybe tomorrow...maybe today
High on a hill so far away
Nothing comes easy
Nothing is free in your life

And every prayer that you pray
You know my love will never change there is a better way for you pack your bags we are going away

I wipe tears that you've cried
I'll take your pain
I'll be the shore in your life when you lost your mind
bring yourself to me
I'll give you everything
You know my love will never change

Life is life...
One day you gain the next you lose
And you feel pain...
You must learn to reach out and choose a better way
You're searching for a change
I'll be your faith
