

You Are the Reason

Random Eyes

Step by step
I run to you
I'm by your side
I love you so I'll never let you go

Just close your eyes I'll carry you you're close to something real can you feel my beat in my heart

You are the reason I live in this world
Please open my eyes I'm running to you Flowd my life with your rain and I'm crying out for more
I just want to feel your love
raining down

Sometimes I'm kneeling and praying all alone
I don't know how I got this lost Speak to me the way you do give me your strength and lead me trough this night
'cause I believe in you

You are the reason I live in this world
Please open my eyes I'm running to you
Flowd my life with your rain
and I'm crying out for more
I just want to feel your love
raining down

Raining down
Raining down

I just want to feel you around Raining down
