

Your Precious Love

Randy Crawford

Honey, oh baby
It's you, you, you
Ques qui se
It's you, I

Ooh, everyday there's something new
Honey, to keep me lovin' you
And woh, girl, with each and every passing minute
So much joy is wrapped up in it

Oh, heaven must have sent you from above
Oh, heaven must have sent your precious love

And now I've got a song to sing
Telling the world about the joy you bring
And you gave me, you gave me a reason for living
And ooh, you taught me, baby,
You taught me the meaning of giving

Oh, heaven must have sent you from above
Oh, heaven must have sent your precious love, oh

To find a love like yours is rare these days
'Cause you showed me what happiness gives in so many ways
I look in the mirror and I'm glad, I'm glad to see the laughter
In the eyes where tears used to be, oh

What you've given me I can never return
'Cause it's so much, girl, I've got a lot to learn
And I wanna show you, I wanna show you my appreciation
'Cause now that I have found you, I found new inspiration

Heaven must have sent you from above
Oh, heaven must have sent your precious love
Oh, heaven must have sent you from above
Oh, heaven must have sent your precious love, oh

It's you, it's you, you
It's you, it's you, you

To find a love like yours is rare these days
'Cause you showed me what happiness gives in so many ways
I look in the mirror and I'm glad to see the laughter
In the eyes where tears used to be, oh

Heaven must have sent you from above
Heaven must have sent your precious love
Heaven must have sent you from above
Oh darlin', heaven must have sent your precious love, oh

Your precious love
Your precious love
Your precious love
Your precious love
