

Yesterday's Whiskey

Randy Houser

It burns like fire
Feels like heaven on my lips
I always wind up wantin' more
After just one sip
It looks like a good time
When it's sittin' in my cup
But in the morning
When the sun comes creepin' up
Your love hits me like yesterday's whiskey

It leaves me hurtin, achin,
Wonderin' what i was thinkin'
Hell I wasn't even drinkin'
When I let you kiss me
It leaves my hands shakin'
It leaves me broke and breakin'y
And it always ends the same
Your love hits me like yesterday's whiskey

You're so good in the moment
But no good for my health
Oh I know I shouldn't
But you know I can't help myself
I don't think about tomorrow
When you pour it on that way
I forget your poison
When your runnin' through my veins
But your love hits me lik yesterday's whiskey

It leaves me hurtin, achin,
Wonderin' what i was thinkin'
Hell I wasn't even drinkin'
When I let you kiss me
It leaves my hands shakin'
It leaves me broke and breakin'y
And it always ends the same
Your love hits me like yesterday's whiskey
