

One Thing I Know

Randy Rogers Band

Woke up today and things have changed
The man I've become just ain't the same Wanted to run but there's just no where to go livin in a dreamworld, praying that it don't show.

Cause who I am
Is who you want me to be
But I'm havin a hard time findin me
So take my hand darling
wont you let me go
got to do this by myself
thats one thing I know

livin my life on low fuel tellin myself that I'm a damn fool all of my friends up in Fort Worth tell me how I'm brave little do you know I almost lost you yesterday

Cause who I am
Is who you want me to be
But I'm havin a hard time findin me
So take my hand darling
wont you let me go

I got the demons on my trail Crazy and messed up no one else can tell

Cause who I am
Is who you want me to be
But I'm havin a hard time findin me
So take my hand darling
wont you let me go

gotta do this all alone thats one think I know
