

Can't Hurt A Man

Randy Travis

Don't mistake me for somebody,
You think maybe just might give a damn.

You already think I'm crazy,
So common baby, try to hurt me if you can.

Go on and cuss me out,
Go on and slam that door.
You can't throw nothin' at me,
I ain't see before.
Go on and put me down, can't fall off the floor.
Ah, you can't hurt a man who can't feel nothin' no more.

You can keep on tryin',
To see me cryin',
Swear I ain't lyin',
That well is all dried up.

And you can cheat me, leave me, laugh right at me,
Knock me over if it makes yah happy.
Girl, it's all your fault that I'm this tough.

Go on and cuss me out,
Go on and slam that door.
You can't throw nothin' at me,
I ain't see before.
Go on and put me down, I can't fall off the floor.
Ah, you can't hurt a man that can't feel nothin' no more.

Go on and cuss me out,
Go on and slam that door.
No you can't throw nothin' at me,
I ain't see before.
Go on and put me down, no I can't fall off the floor.
Ah, you can't hurt a man that can't feel nothin' no more.

Go on and put me down,
I can't fall off the floor.
Ah you can't hurt a man that can't feel nothin' no more.
