

Train Long Gone

Randy Travis

(Gone!)

Well, I hate how that word
Rattles all around in this room
(Alone)
With a memory so strong
I could sweep it up with a broom

(Tears)

If I shed anymore I'm afraid
They might wear out my face

(Clear)

Yes, it's clear to me now
That her love can never be replaced

Love may be gone but never forgotten
The memory won't leave you alone
And the train may be long gone from the station
But you still hear the whistle moan
Still hear the whistle moan

(Time)

Time got so slow and thick
That the clock hardly ticks anymore

(Crime)

It's a crime how I sit here
And stare like a dog at the door

(Blame)

Oh yes, I'll take the blame
I admit I did not treat her right

(Shame)

It's a shame layin' here
All alone on this cold, windy night

Love may be gone but never forgotten
The memory won't leave you alone
And the train may be long gone from the station
But you still hear the whistle moan
Still hear the whistle moan

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Train gone, long gone train
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Train gone, long gone train
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Train gone, long gone train
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

Love may be gone but never forgotten
The memory won't leave you alone
And the train may be long gone from the station
But you can still hear the whistle moan
Still hear the whistle moan

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Train gone, long gone train

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Train, long gone train
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Train, long gone train
...
