

Step Out Side

Randy

Racist issues are subject of discussion again.
The conditions are the same, the problem still remains.
And just like so many times before,
We come to no conclusion, we achieve nothin' more.

Yes, I am sure that they mean well by the T-shirts they sell,
But this time I've had it with your crap. I feel like a mission of my own

I just want to step outside
Strike a blow for these ignorant masses,
I just want to step outside
Strike a blow for you.

You could blame it on depression, blame it on whatever you choose.
But it's still on the streets that people are really paying the ir dues.
Yeah, we all want integration, we all want this violence to end
But I ought to think of something better than where and when the e violence began.

Yes, I am sure that they mean well by the T-shirts they sell,
But this time I've had it with your crap. I feel like a mission
of my own

I just want to step outside
Strike a blow for these ignorant masses,
I just want to step outside
Strike a blow for you, you you.
