

Love Who You Love

Rascal Flatts

I should have stolen every moment
Now there's a page with not enough on it
Where we belong
I guess I'll never understand it

Why do we take it all for granted
Until it's gone?
Cause then it's gone

Love who you love
With all that you have
And don't waste the time that flies so fast

Love who you love
And say that you do
Hold on as tight as they'll let you
Love who you love

Give all ya' got like it's your last day
Your heart and soul before it's too late
And pull 'em in

So close enough that they can feel it
With every single breath that you're breathin'
Breathe it in again and again

Love who you love
With all that you have
And don't waste the time that flies so fast

Love who you love
And say that you do
Hold on as tight as they'll let you

Hold on, hold on
Love who you love
Say that you do
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Love who you love
With all that you have
And don't waste the time that flies so fast

Love who you love
And say that you do
Hold on as tight as they'll let you

Love who you love
Yeah, yeah
Love who you love
Yeah, yeah

Hold on, keep on holding on
Yeah, yeah
With every single breath you're breathing

Love who you love

Love who you love
Again and again and again and again
