

Keep Your Heart Broken

The Rasmus

Enfolding your love in my heart
By the dawn I'll be gone
The road keeps us apart for some time, I'll be gone

Your promised to swallow your tears when I leave you You promised to follow the leads I will give you You said you would crawl in the dark from the laughter You said you would long after me ever after

My love will grow black if your heart gets stolen
-Just promise to keep your heart...
One day I'll come back if the door's still open
-Just promise to keep your heart broken

Days go like the wind
And this life is too short It makes no sense to give in To release you from my thoughts

I promised to write you,
I'll always remember I promised to try to be back 'til December
I said I must go I must face this disaster
I said I would come after you ever after
