

Live forever

The Rasmus

Was it an angel
that knocked on my door or was it a wind
was i still sleeping
lost in a dream
or was it you

We swam in the fountains beneath the northern stars we cried from the laughter and died in each others arms

Remember live forever
remember to live for love

I got back my letters
ages ago
your adress unknown
I passed a stranger
who had your eyes
or was it you
we ran through the graveyard to catch the midnight sun we danced drunk and naked until the summer was gone
