

Lucifer's Angel

The Rasmus

Behind those eyes lies the truth and grief
Behind those beautiful smiles,
I've seen tragedy
The flawless skin hides the secrets within Silent forces that secretly ignite your sins

Fly Away
Fly Away
From the torch of blame
They hunt you- the Lucifer's Angel

Never Lived
You never died
Your life has been denied
They call you
The Lucifer's Angel

Beyond these clouds you can hide all your tears Beyond this world you'll be safe from their wicked fears and in their hearts they fear your demands
You know their minds won't accept you, they'll never understand

On your own
I know you can make it Truth or bone
I know you can shake it Survive alone
I know you can take it
