

Madness

The Rasmus

Too much, too fast maybe
I don't know where my destiny's taking me
So I'll go wherever it leads me
Too high, too low baby
I wanna know where my destiny's taking me
So I'll go to make you believe me Yeah

Cry, cry when there's something to cry about
Cry, cry baby, but don't drown in the sadness

It's madness don't ask me to explain
Don't take away the pain
It's impossible to save me
So come on

Too cheap, too scary, too creepy to marry
Too serious, too mysterious and way too deep

Cry, cry when there's something to cry about
Cry, cry baby, but don't drown in the sadness

It's madness don't ask me to explain
Don't take away the pain
It's impossible to save me

It's madness so easy to complain
Nobody left to blame it's impossible to save me
Crack in the shield feels so unreal
No one to blame for losing the flame
Crack in the shield lost in the fields of sadness

It's madness
Oh yeah

It's madness don't ask me to explain
Don't take away the pain
It's impossible to save me
Save me from madness
Oh, it's madness
I know that it's madness
Wake up it's madness
