

Save Me Once Again

The Rasmus

Like a stone I'll go down I'm too far to be found got no place for the storm all the love that I found couldn't turn me around drift away all alone

Don't say this is the end
I think I'm lost again

Thank you for your patience the time that you gave me I think I never knew you were trying to save me free me from the shadows that lay on my shoulder please don't say that it's over, it's over, it's over

I confess I was weak got my heart full of greed wanted more than I need

I'm standing on the edge afraid of emptiness
don't leave me
I'm begging you my friend

Don't say that it's the end
I think I'm lost again
I'm standing on the edge
don't leave me
I'm begging you my friend
save me once again
would you save me once again
would you save me once again
