

Someone's Gonna Light You Up

The Rasmus

You've waited for somebody to break into your life
And be your shelter for the night
Don't lose it now
Just drag yourself back into the light
You'll find yourself a reason
Don't you give up the fight

Sick of all the rain and tired of waiting
Is it ever gonna stop?
It's gonna be ok, hush hush
And there will be a day, don't rush
When someone's gonna light you up

I know that you are suffering and torn up inside
I saw the ocean in your eyes
I wish that you will find yourself a place in paradise
I think you better run before the storm will rise

And every time the show's about to start
You're getting even deeper in the dark
And every time you say that you will change
You're getting someone else to play your part Always

Sick of all the rain and tired of waiting
For someone to take a shot
It's gonna be ok
And there will be a day when
Someone's gonna light you up
Someone's gonna light you up
Someone's gonna light you up
