

Here we go again, we ain't gonna bend
To pretend it's a fight against the majority
Lip service sucks, yeah, you know it sucks
Hate inside of me is breaking me, hurting me
Killing me, burning me
We are still living, we should party, yeah
We are still living, we should party, yeah
We are still living, we should party, yeah, still living
Wellwell, you can always tell
Wellwell, you can always tell
Wellwell, you can always tell
Here we go again in the world of lie try to please everyone by being flexible
This narrow atmosphere is restricting words you say
Hate inside me is breaking me, hurting me
Killing me, burning me
We are still living, we should party, yeah
We are still living, we should party, yeah
We are still living, we should party, yeah, still living
Wellwell, you can always tell
Wellwell, you can always tell
Wellwell, you can always tell
We are still living, we should party, yeah
We are still living, we should party, yeah
We are still living, we should party, yeah, still living
Wellwell, you can always tell
Wellwell, you can always tell
Wellwell, you can always tell
Wellwell, you can always tell
(It doesn't matter whether you hate or love me)
Wellwell, you can always tell
(It doesn't matter whether you hate or love me)
Wellwell, you can always tell
(It doesn't matter whether you hate or love me)
