

Hello Again

Raul Malo

Well....

Well hello again
tell me where you've been
it's been a while,
oh honey, my old friend

you've been there for me faithful as you can be
you're the one, I count on, in the end

I wish it weren't so but that's how oh it seems to go
one night your making memories
then that's all you are

it's been a while,

faithful as you can be
you're the one, I count on, in the end

I wish it weren't so
but that's how it seems to go
one night your making memories

here's to what might have been
we've got no secrets
no reasons to pretend

talk about old times
laugh until we cry
we haven't done this since i don't know when

well hello again
tell me where you've been
well hello again
here's to you old friend

well hello again
la la la la lala
well hello again
la la la la lala
well hello again
la la la la lala
