

Ready For My Lovin'

Raul Malo

There's a love about you, baby
That brings a grown man to his knees
A love that tastes as sweet as honey
Let me have some, won't you please?

Say the word and I'll come runnin'
On the straight and true
Are you ready for my lovin'
Like I'm ready for you?

If by chance we stay together
You and I can have it all
But I'm afraid you'll find another
Before we've had a chance to fall

You've already got me dreamin'
Of all that we would do
Are you ready for my lovin'
Like I'm ready for you?

I wanna know if you're ready for love this strong
Someone who knows you
On cold nights will hold you
And never ever leave you all alone

You're my million dollar baby
You're the smile that lights the room
You're the fire that burns inside me
Oh, you're the one that hung the moon

You say the word and I'll come runnin'
On the straight and true
Are you ready for my lovin'
Like I'm ready for you? Like I'm ready for you
Like I'm ready for you, like I'm ready for you
