

[Verse 1:]

I know this is wrong
Because you're taken
This day has been long
What are we waiting for?

[Hook:]

No one has to know girl
Go on, take off your pearl
It can be the two of us
Just the two of us
All alone from dawn to dusk
So give me your trust

[Verse 2:]

I believe I read your mind
I believe that pigs can fly
I believe in you and I
I believe that if we try to keep it in monogamy
Then maybe I will be another legend of the humankind
Really that's just human nature
Something that we must behold
Even though I want to hold you
It's something that we can't control
Even though you have my soul
Fear that this is getting old
Fear that this is getting old
Maybe I just need to grow
Maybe I just need to grow

[Hook:]

No one has to know girl
Go on, take off your pearl
It can be the two of us
Just the two of us
All alone from dawn to dusk
So give me your trust

[Outro:]

No I don't love you
I just think you're beautiful
