

I Love You

Raven-Symoné

When someone asked me today
All the things I loved
And Of all the things ive said which one is highest above
First thought I love so much no way I could reside
Then the answer came so clear like it was there all the time
Cuz I thank the good lord above
Here are all the things I love

I love the day
I love the night
The afternoon and the morning too
I love the sun
I love the moon
But most of all I-I-I love you
I-I-I love you

If you ever question life and your reason for Life is only meant to live and to live life
Is to love more and more
It dont take no one but you
To say the way you feel
If you know it in your heart that its love and no doubt its rea l
Cuz I do thank the lord above
For each day I have to show you that

I love the day
I love the night
The afternoon and the morning too
I love the sun
I love the moon
But most of all I love you
I love the day
I love the night
The afternoon and the morning too
I love the sun
I love the moon
But most of all I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you
