It's been a while... there was you and I, do anything to have you, but it wasn't right (no) said some things you maybe shouldn't of said (yeah) but you saved a part of my life (life)
If I had a choice (yeah) I would have chose to let you go (let you go) I can't get get enough
(no) I always stay (I always stay around)

I wanna let you go, (but I keep coming back for more) tell me you need me but you gotta love me or leave me baby why can't I let you see (you are the only one for me) ohh how I need you but you gotta love me or leave me baaaby leave me ohhh. Oh leave me baaaby leave me ohh

My heart is broken apart because of you baby oh can't think about nobody else and I can't help it but your not ready for me to love you like I do. As many times that you hurt me you shouldn't deserve me but your there forever that won a million yeaaaah

I wanna let you go (I wanna let you go) (I keep coming back for more) tell me you need me but you gotta love me or leave me baby, why can't I let you see (yeaah your the only one for me) ohh how I need you but you gotta love me or leave me

Baaby for you... I don't really think to see you (ohh anything just to bring you around) I can lie it hurts (I can lie it hurts inside) make it hard for me to let go

I wanna let you go (let you go) tell me you need me but you gotta love me or leave me baaby why can't I let you see your the only one for me yeaaaah ohh how I need you but you gotta love me or leave me baaby leave me ohh leave me baaaby ohh leave me ohh
