

Stupid

Raven-Symoné

You got what most dames want (oh oh oh oh)
But it ain't what I came to see (uh huh I know)
You don't know bout my game zone (oh oh oh oh)
Time to show this boy a harder me

Ay
You talking like you know what I
Want
Before you start pursuing baby
Whoa
You run girl like a track star
But I'm more like a NASCAR
Blowin it back at ya
Please
I knew I wasn't talkin from the Door
We were gonna kiss, make my hair twist, have me lookin crazy
No
This is obviously this is your thing right
Trickin' girls to think their the only ones you're feelin right

Stupid, stupid I'm not
I've been around here baby
That means I'm on it
And I'm used to sucker boys like you
Stupid, stupid I'm not
You talk about it baby
But when it comes to a real girl wants
You just don't know what to do

You think you know but you don't (You just don't know what to do)
You think you know but you don't (You just don't know what to do)
You think you know but you don't (You just don't know what to do)
You think you know but you don't (You just don't know what to do)

Hey
You told my girl that I'm with you
Whoa
Did you know Veronica had Shown
The message that you sent sayin
He wanted to be her man and I was never in your plans
Please
I told you you ain't nothing I
Want
So why you keep blowin up my
Phone
You stuntin' and you poppin' right
Do us both a favor and stop callin on a late night

Shorty I can change
Your whole life in a day
I don't even think you know
I can do the things
Them other boys can't hang
I'm everything you want
Come on flip the page

Let me show you they can't tame me
I can be you baby
So tell me why you actin so shady
Cause you know damn well you want to be my lady
