

Hunger Inside

Raven

Lost in this nightmare
No way out of this charade
Just one direction
If we're ever to be saved
Future is fading
Overwhelmed with emptiness

When you're driven to the breakpoint and there's nowhere else to go Keep your balance and don't look below
Just keep pushing past the limit
Leave the agony behind
The battles in your mind

It's the hunger inside
inside of your eyes
Burns you alive
As you reach for the prize
It's the fever deep within
Possessing your soul

Cast out in darkness
Sell your soul
Just to stay warm Cry out for freedom just hold on through the storm
Body is screaming
But the torture never stops

When you're broken
Down and busted
And the whip is at your back
It takes everything you've got To pick yourself up and get back on the track
With inhuman concentration
Drag yourself up to the top
To survive you know
You cannot stop

It's the hunger inside
inside of your eyes
Burns you alive
As you reach for the prize
It's the fever deep within
Possessing your soul
Burns you alive
As you reach for your goal

It's the hunger inside
inside of your eyes
Burns you alive

It's the hunger inside
that eats you alive
