

Necessary Evil

Raven

Take the one way ticket strapped into your seat gonna take you out of bounds and knock you flying

You'll dedicate assimilate and detonate

It's a necessary evil
- it's a beautiful disease It's a twisted kind of logic gonna take your spirit higher while it drags you to your knees

Think you're going crazy when it takes control got a vice grip on your mind and squeeze your soul

You'll dedicate assimilate and celebrate this fury

Once you start the journey you'll never reach the end you'd best hold on with all you got and come out swinging
