

Seven Shades

Raven

Living in the past
It seems the future's here so fast
It almost seems like yesterday
When I could see you follow
Wipeout in the ocean
Then the goddess blessed the ground you walked on
Trust in you has gone
I'll build a dream machine so fast and clean
Play the game you'll see what I mean

Crazy, lazy and there's nothing I can do
But soon I will be kicking
Seven shades right outta you
You think I'm mental, incidental
And you say my time is through
But I'll be kicking seven shades outta you

Black and blue and red all over
While you been living in clover
Acting kinda dumb living so high and mighty
Living in the dirt I tell you
My attitude could buy and sell you
Trust in you has gone
I'll build a dream machine so fast and clean
Rip you into shreds like nothing you have ever seen

Crazy, lazy and there's nothing I can do
But soon I will be kicking
Seven shades right outta you
You think I'm mental, incidental
And you say my time is through
But I'll be kicking seven shades outta you
