

Top Of The World

Raven

Muscle in the backroom
Power on the street
Your tentacles lie everywhere
And no one beats the heat
Inherited the playground
Untouchable to all
You're climbing oh so very high
But it's a long long way to fall

Lord of your domain
Holder of the key
Think that you're invisible
but it's so plain to see

On top of the world
But you'll never hear a sound
On top of the world
But you're going down down down
You're going down

Shakedown at the market
Skimming off the cream
Not an eye can testify
To what it's never seen

Master of chaos
Answering to none
Think you've finally arrived
But soon you will be gone

On top of the world
But you'll never hear a sound
On top of the world
But you're going down down down

Master of chaos
Answering to none
Think you've finally arrived
But soon you will be gone

On top of the world
But you'll never hear a sound
On top of the world
But you're going down down down

On top of the world
But you'll never hear a sound
On top of the world
But you're going down down down
Down down down
Down down down
Down down down
