

Cry for tomorrow

Ravenheart

We see an eagle
In the sky
He spreads his wings
To fly so high
Flying so high
He looks around
For things he needs
And he takes them
With his claws

Cry for tomorrow
Leaving all behind
We're living here in sorrow
With future in our mind

Cry for tomorrow
Leaving all behind
In a land of pain and sorrow
With future in our mind

You want to be
Like this eagle
To escape from this world
From this world
To make your wish
Your wish comes true
Just like the eagle in the sky
In the sky

Cry for tomorrow
Leaving all behind
We're living here in sorrow
With future in our mind

Cry for tomorrow
Leaving all behind
In a land of pain and sorrow
With future in our mind
