

Lords of power

Ravenheart

We live in a land of glory
We live in a land of the sun
We cry on the call for freedom for everyone.

We see the shine of the sun,
We see the clouds at the sky,
On the wings of destiny we fly.
Glorious in victory,
Here we gather hand-in-hand
We fight, and we die, for this glorious land.

Look to the sky,
Believe what you see
The stars shine so bright,
Forever be free.

We live in a land of glory,
We live in a land of the sun.
We cry on the call for freedom,
For everyone.
We live in a land of glory,
We live in a land of the sun,
We cry on the call for freedom,
For everyone.

We are living in a glorious land,
And we raise our heads up high
And when we win the battle we celebrate all night(?)

We live in the land of the glory,
We live in a land of the sun
We cry out the call of the freedom,
We cry out for everyone

We live in a land of glory
We live in a land of the sun
We cry on the call for freedom for everyone

We live in a land of the glory,
We cry out for everyone

The time is passing by,
The sun rides in the sky,
Let your mind be free,
And look over the sea.
Tonight we spread our wings,
In the Valley of the kings,
We are the Lords of Power,
Masters of the Fire Wind and Ice

We see the glorious land,
And we will fight until the end
Flying high(?),
We carry on,
We carry on
The time is passing by,
Believe, Believe,

Don't ask me why,
We're the Lords of Power,
Fire, Fear and Pain
