

Seems Like I Gotta Do Wrong

Ray Charles

Another day has come and gone,
In a world where I don't belong
Another week has passed me by
It's not because I didn't try

Oh no I'm keeping try but

Nobody saw me walking
And nobody heard me talking, I don't know why
Seems like I gotta do wrong, gotta do wrong, gotta do wrong
Before they notice me

Another job that I just can't get
A nice apartment, the landlord jut won't rent
I go to bed, but my sleep [just] won't come
My belly's empty and my brain is so numb
Nobody saw me walking
And nobody heard me talking

Tell me why!

Seems like I gotta do wrong, gotta do wrong, gotta do wrong
Before they notice me

Seems like I gotta do wrong before they notice me

I got the number in a other day so If some is crazy well it's 'cause to blame

Nobody saw me walking
And nobody heard me talking
Seems like I gotta do wrong, gotta do wrong, gotta do wrong
Before they notice me

Yes, I do, oh, yeah
Seems like I gotta do wrong, gotta do wrong, gotta do wrong
Before they notice me
