

Can't Run, Can't Hide

Ray J

Can't run, cant hide (you can't run)
You know you can't get away
I often wonder who you know
What you thinkin, where'd you go, baby
Your mother done told you more than twice in your life
You can't keep runnin' away, you can't keep hidin from yo man, it's all righ t
You got me thinkin, thinkin
I don't really feel the same
You should be thinkin, thinkin
Loosin' you'd be a shame
So baby baby come around
Can we talk at least before the sun goes down, baby

Can't run, cant hide
You know you cant get away (cant hide)
Cant eat, cant sleep

Till ya know you got your lovin today
You cant hide what your feelin
When you're dealin, with my love (with my love)
I often wonder, what you say
Or when I'm not around, but I'm hear to stay, baby
I've paid the time, i've paid my dues
And now its bout time that we had some rules (baby)
Stop hiding from me, ignoring

(The situation at hand)

Let's stop pretending, you hear me

(Let a man be a man)

So baby baby, come around (oh)
Cause we can work it out before the sun goes down (whoa yeah)
Cant run, cant hide (can't get away)
You know you can't get away
Cant eat, cant sleep
Till ya know you got your lovin today
You cant hide what your feelin
When you're dealin, with my love (can't hide:im watchin' you, im watchin you baby)

Cant run, cant hide
You know you can't get away
Cant eat, cant sleep
Till ya know you got your lovin today
You cant hide what your feelin
When you're dealin, with my love

(When there's no where to run, baby you can't stop my love)
(When there's no where to hide, hide yeah)
(When there's no where to run, baby you can't stop my love)
(When there's no where to hide, hide yeah)

Can't run, can't hide
You know you can't get away

Can't eat, cant sleep
Till ya know you got your lovin today
You cant hide what your feelin (You know you can't get away)
When you're dealin, with my love
Can't run, can't hide
You know you can't get away
Can't eat, cant sleep
Till ya know you got your lovin today
You cant hide what your feelin
When you're dealin, with my love
(When there's no where to run, baby you can't stop my love)
(When there's no where to hide, hide yeah)
(You can't hide)
