

Gonna Burn Some Bridges

Ray Price

Tonight I'm going out and burn some bridges
But only on the road that leads to you
Find a bar and drown a million memories
What else is there left for me to do?

This time I won't give in and let you put me through Another day for you to play with a heart that worships you
'Cause tonight I'm going out and burn some bridges
But only on the road that leads to you

'Cause tonight I'm going out and burn some bridges
Across crazy river of regret
Find someone who thinks a little of me
And maybe somehow then I can forget
This time I won't give in
