

I Lie A Lot

Ray Price

I say that I don't miss you if they ask me if I do
I lie a lot, that's what I do
I'm not own because I'm blue, there's just nothing I want to do
Oh, I lie a lot if they ask about you

Do you have to lie when they ask about me
Or is it true, when you tell them you're glad that you're free?
I wish it was that easy to pretend that I'd forgot
When I say that I don't miss you, I lie a lot

Do you have to lie when they ask about me
Or is it true, when you tell them you're glad that you're free?
I wish it was that easy to pretend that I'd forgot
When I say that I don't miss you, I lie a lot
