

If You Ever Change Your Mind

Ray Price

Girl it can't go on like this
You say you're feeling trapped and locked in
And you long to see the part of life you've missed
And travel roads to places you ain't been

You know I hate to see you go
Especially after all this time
So here's one thing I think that you should know
I'll be here if you ever change your mind
I'll be here if you ever change your mind

I know the time has come when you must seek your own way
And if that's how it's got to be
I can only hope you find the road someday
That brings you back to me

I know this life has got you down
Waking up each day to face the same old grind
But if there's no one selling dreams in town
I'll be here if you ever change your mind
I'll be here if you ever change your mind
